Song—Now the Day is Over.

Dorothy Bowman has been absent from school on the account of her little brother being sick.

The attendance and interest in studies is greatly increased since the scarlet fever scare is giving way.

Mrs. Richards gave her 3rd graders a test in spelling Friday. Up to that time they had studied about nine hundred words and out of that number only three words were misspelled.

We all feel the loss of our dear little friend and schoolmate, Georgie Brown. We miss her sunny smile and happy manner, but remembering God's command, "Suffer little children to come unto me," we know she has a sunnier smile and a happier home in the beautiful home on high.

If you want to buy or sell any kind of live stock, call, phone or write Jensen, Pace & Keene,

PROPOSED NEW MAIL ROUTE

The postoffice department is advertising for bids for carrying mail between Mountainair and Estancia.

The advertisement reads as follows:

"Sealed proposals will be received at the office of the Fourth Assistant Postmaster General until December 21, 1915, for carrying U. S. mails from January 16, 1916, to June 30, 1918, from Mountainair by Punta, Manzano, Torreon and Tajique to Estancia, 43 miles, and back, six times a week. Leave Mountainair 7 A. M., arrive Estancia 12 M.; leave Estancia 1 P. M., arrive Mountainair 6 P. M."

A bond of $3,000 is required with the bids.

The contract includes the deposit and collection of mail on the route.

There are at present eighteen boxes on the route between here and Tajique, and undoubtedly there will be some boxes on the other end of the route, so that bidders will have to figure on probably at least twenty-five stops each way.

The schedule, it will be noticed, requires an average speed of between eight and nine miles an hour.

When the roads are good it will be a very easy proposition to make it with an automobile, but when the roads are impracticable for auto travel it becomes a pretty serious job.

The establishment of this service will materially improve the mail service at this place as trains are now running, and simplify the routing of mail at Albuquerque for the mountain towns and Estancia. It will also give the postmaster at Mountainair additional exercise, but the present incumbent at that place is full of ginger and it is not likely that any complaint will be heard from that quarter.

So let 'er come.

Miss Porter, deputy county treasurer, informs us that in all probability the tax rolls will not be in the treasurer's office before the latter part of this month, and possibly not until the first of January. Tax remittances are being filed, and receipts will be issued as rapidly as possible after the books are delivered to the treasurer.

The home talent play given last Saturday night was witnessed by a big audience, and everybody was delighted with the performance. Estancia undoubtedly has as good amateur talent in this line as can be found. All the parts were rendered in a manner worthy of professionals. We understand that many who attended the performance are asking to have it repeated.

Dr. Ottosen of Willard, county health officer, was called to the Silverton neighborhood Tuesday evening, where we are told he placed under quarantine the Chandler and Clark families, on account of scarlet fever. We understand the cases there are not severe.
